calm & clear

The safe non-habit-forming nutritional supplement to ease stress and anxiety

College students are under pressure to perform academically and socially. Finally there's a product that helps them feel calm and clear when they're under stress — by providing the nutritional support they need to do their best.

Whether giving a presentation to a class, club or dorm ... taking a final exam ... performing at "open mic" night ... or even just being "put on the spot" in class, Calm and Clear puts you at ease—so you can be who you want to be.

Calm and Clear helps you:

- ▶ Relax under pressure
- ▶ Sleep well and wake up refreshed and clear
- ▶ Perform with energy, clarity and ease
- ▶ Maintain a healthy nervous system
- ▶ Sustain energy levels
- ▶ Keep up a positive outlook
- ▶ Concentrate and focus
- ▶ Remember facts and figures—when you need them
